

SULZER SURE HE CAN BEAT GLYNN

Could Win in Progressive Primaries if Colonel Stayed Out.

WANTS ONLY FAIR FIGHT WITH MURPHY

In Any Event, Former Governor Is Sure to Run on American Party Ticket.

Former Governor William Sulzer asserted yesterday at his law office, 115 Broadway, that he could beat Governor Glynn for the nomination for Governor, or any other candidate entered in the race by Charles F. Murphy, in any honestly conducted primary.

He is also confident that he could win hands down in the Progressive primaries, which he will enter, provided his friend, Colonel Roosevelt, does not run.

Sulzer said that only his long friendship with the Colonel and his admiration for him restrain him from entering the Progressive primaries against the chief Bull Moose. But whatever happens the deposed Governor will be a candidate, if only on his own ticket—that of the American party—in order that the people may pass judgment on "Murphy's high court of infamy," as he calls the High Court of Impeachment.

"I will run in the Democratic and Progressive primaries," said Mr. Sulzer, "on two conditions. First, that Charles F. Murphy give me one out of every three inspectors at the polls on primary day; for otherwise I would have the nomination stolen from me. Second, provided that Colonel Roosevelt does not run. My friendship with Colonel Roosevelt is such that I would not do anything that might hurt him."

"I can defeat Glynn in any fair primary fight. Even though Charles F. Murphy tries to give me one out of every three inspectors, I may be forced by my friends to run in the Democratic primaries, and this will be determined when the anti-Murphy Democrats meet in conference at Syracuse on August 17."

Mr. Sulzer's party managers, the chiefs of the American party, which was organized to insure his candidacy for Governor this fall, have sent out 100,000 postcards to voters all over the state, it was announced yesterday. Said one of these managers, who spoke only on condition that his name would not be used:

"The result was surprising. We got 50,000 replies from voters. About 60,000, or to be exact 62,210 per cent, of the replies, were for Sulzer for Governor. These were the replies of the voters who gave their usual politics. Forty per cent of them were Democrats, 15 per cent Republicans, 15 per cent Progressives and the rest Prohibitionists and split voters."

MOTHER AND GIRL SAVED

Both Near Death in Water When Help Arrived.

Washed overboard from a boat by the heavy swell caused by a passing steamer, Mrs. Mary Seigel, twenty-six years old, and her daughter Ethel, six years old, were rescued yesterday by officers of the North Beach, yesterday, by Otto Frank, of 43 Wilson av.

Mrs. Seigel, who is an expert swimmer, was giving her daughter lessons just before the steamer passed. She had just turned the boat up, and the two slid into the water. In trying to aid her daughter, Mrs. Seigel became exhausted. Frank, who has witnessed the accident, put out in a small motor boat and managed to keep the mother and girl afloat until a rowboat arrived.

Mrs. Seigel and her daughter were revived and sent home.

MAXIM MUSIC FOR MAXIME

Jealous Dancer Wounds Two at Greenwich St. Function.

While dancing was going on in the hall above the Columbia café, 107 Greenwich st., early yesterday morning one of the dancers engaged in the maxime dance with a revolver and went to work with it.

As a result of the impromptu target practice two men are in the hospital. They are John C. Borst, of 422 5th st., and James H. Oliver, of 335 Pearl st. Borst was shot three times in the body. Oliver escaped with nothing worse than one bullet in his right leg.

The police discovered that the gun play started because one of the dancers paid too much attention to a lady who was not his wife. The husband of the aggrieved young woman remembered that he had a revolver with him and proceeded to use it. When the police arrived they found thirty couples nonchalantly engaged in the tango. These were hurried to the Greenwich st. police station, where each and every dancer was searched, and no shooting had occurred. Notwithstanding these denials, the police insisted upon holding the two dancers who had been so badly shot that they were unable to get away.

Neither will die, nor will either tell who shot him. The biased police are inclined to think that the shooting was a result of a feud between gangs.

Fears Father Has Slain Self.

The police were asked yesterday to search for Nathan Brill, sixty-seven, of 949 Glenmore av., Brooklyn, who has been missing since July 1. Brill's daughter, Mrs. Ester Harber, of 170 79th st., Bath Beach, told the police she feared her father had become depressed and killed himself.

Back to Old Dances.

There will be an old-fashioned waltz contest to-night at the Ocean Inn, Seaside, N. Y. No man under thirty will be eligible and the girls must confess to at least twenty-seven. The judges will be Mrs. John Gerkin, Winner McCay, Al. Reeves and Mrs. W. Archibald.

M'CABE DISTURBED "PRETTIEST GIRL IN PARIS" NOW BRIDE

"Packy" Says Sulzer Is Planning to Deny Him or Glynn Constitutional Rights.

(By Telegraph to The Tribune.)

Albany, July 11.—Religion was injected into the state political campaign to-day by Patrick E. McCabe, Democratic "boss" of Albany County and long known as one of the upstate lieutenants of Charles F. Murphy, of Tammany Hall. He and Governor Glynn, who recently appointed him to the $10,000 a year position of State Conservation Commissioner, are Catholics, and in a statement he gave out to-day McCabe bitterly attacks ex-Governor Sulzer and other enemies of the present government, declaring that they are secretly organizing a movement "planned to deny to persons of my creed their constitutional rights and privileges."

The statement follows closely the announcement that Glynn will accept the Democratic nomination for Governor if it is tendered him. The Governor would not to-day discuss this announcement, which was made last night at Poughkeepsie by Edward E. Perkins, treasurer of the Democratic State Committee, but it is known to meet his approval. His friends are already starting the boom for his nomination.

McCabe's pronouncement to-day was induced primarily by a resolution adopted Thursday night by Daniel J. Dugan, the Albany County state committeeman, and his followers, denouncing both McCabe and Governor Glynn. It was charged that the Governor, with McCabe's help, was running the state government for his personal ends. Dugan was always a supporter of ex-Governor Sulzer, who recently gave him the place of Secretary of State on the Sulzer state ticket.

While Dugan is of the same religious faith as McCabe, the latter charges that Sulzer is using him and other men with Celtic names to cover up the real purpose of his movement. Sulzer and his followers he refers to as "the friends of the American Protective Association ticket."

McCabe was the man who fired the opening gun in the Tammany fight that resulted in the impeachment of Sulzer. He has made many bitter attacks on Sulzer since, but the vituperation in the one to-day surpassed that in all of its predecessors.

BOY SCOUTS TO PLAY

Band Engaged for Evening Concerts on Hudson.

The managers of the Hudson Navigation Company have secured the services of the 1st Pennsylvania Boy Scouts Band to render concerts every evening this week on the steamers of the Citizens' Line, running between this city and Troy. These young musicians' ages range from only fourteen to nineteen years.

The bookings of the Hudson night lines thus far this season have been greatly in excess of any previous records. R. M. Much, general passenger agent, said yesterday that the congestion in June did not have any depressing effect on the volume of either the excursionists or the regular traffic.

"Every evening," added Mr. Much, "the dance floors have been crowded to capacity."

WILL SELL JEWELS TO DUSKY BELLES

Six College Men to Tour West Indies and Show Islanders American Goods.

The brig Nancy Bell, of which a single "tar" was the cook and the captain bold" as well as crew, boson tight and midshipman and nothing on the schooner yacht Eclipse, which will sail from this port Wednesday for West Indian ports.

The Eclipse will be manned by six recent graduates of Cornell and Yale who will sail the bark from island to island. They will sell to the dusky native belles twenty different lines of miscellaneous apparel and jewelry.

The cruise, which is under the management of Walter H. Bartholomew, of 209 Fifth av., is designed to introduce American manufactures to those islands which are on the proposed Panama Canal routes.

The trip will include calls at Havana and Santiago, Cuba; San Juan and Ponce, Porto Rico; Kingston, Jamaica, Colon, Panama; Port of Spain, Trinidad; Georgetown and Demerara, Barbados. The "American Clock and Suit Review" is sponsor for the Eclipse's first cruise.

The six sailor-salesmen are Jerrold Watson, Willis and Ronald Post and Robert Copping, all of Mount Pleasant, N. J., and J. Muller-Thym and R. Campbell, of New York. James W. Pryor will be the skipper of the Eclipse.

MACK SAYS SPLIT MEANS TIGER WINS

Moose Ticket Will Insure Democratic Victory in Any State.

T. R. STILL INTENDS TO CRUSH G. O. P.

Committeeman Holds Republicans and Progressives Will Be Long Divided.

Norman E. Mack, Democratic National Committeeman, is confident that the Tammany ticket in this state next fall will be elected, if the Progressive party puts a full ticket in the field.

Mr. Mack is also of the opinion that the Progressives, if they do not combine with the Republicans, will also bring about the election of Democratic candidates in other states.

Mr. Mack expressed these opinions in an interview yesterday afternoon. He made it plain that he looked forward to Democratic success so long as the Progressives stood aloof from the Republicans.

"When Colonel Roosevelt made his Pittsburgh speech," said Mr. Mack, "he again threw down the gauntlet to the Republican party and cleared the whole political situation."

"As matters appear to me now, the Republican party will continue to be a divided organization for many years to come. With a Republican candidate and a Progressive candidate for each state and Congressional office, the situation will be similar to that of 1912. It is true that the Progressives may get fewer votes in every instance, but it will not affect the general result, particularly as regards making it possible for the Democrats to win in nearly all the contests."

Mr. Mack also defends President Wilson, saying that the President and his associates at Washington know more of the conditions attending the trying situations with which the administration is now wrestling than do the administration's critics.

WOULD LYNCH PRISONER

Fathers of Girls Try to Attack Him in Station House.

When Antonio Cappello, a laborer employed by the Brooklyn Rapid Transit Company, is taken from the Stage at police station to be arraigned in Manhattan av. court, Williamsburg, this morning it will be under a strong guard of police. Threats have been openly made to seize and lynch him.

Late yesterday afternoon, Cappello, who is married and has two children, was arrested on complaint of four small girls.

Detectives Fiaschetti and Ferris traced Cappello to 88th st. and Third av. and captured him after a struggle. At the station house when the fathers of the children saw the prisoner they made a rush for him, but the detectives fought them off.

The girls who make the charges are Kate Scheidt, eight, 40 Montrose av.; Annie Mauser, eight, 63 Meserole st., and Rose and Natalie Cropp, twins, ten, 59 Meserole st., where Cappello formerly lived.

DOG FRIGHTENS TENANTS

House in Panic Until Police-Man Shoots Animal.

A Scotch collie, the property of Alexander Gordon, 189 Guernsey st., Williamsburg, threw the members of his family and other tenants in the house into a panic yesterday when it broke its chain and ran about barking and snarling.

The screams of women and children attracted Patrolman Mooney, of the Greenpoint av. station. He received permission to kill the animal. He sent five bullets into the body and one into the brain before the dog fell dead.

TRIBUNE AIDS CHILDREN TO SEE CITY FROM 700-FT. TOWER

Seven hundred feet above the level of the streets is the observation gallery of the Metropolitan tower, Madison av. and 23d st. From it the whole vast city and its historic surrounding country can be taken in at a glance.

The New York Tribune, believing that this view will be of material educational value to the children of the city, will enable them to understand something of its vastness and will stimulate them to thoughts which may prove later of value to themselves and their city, in addition to affording them a temporary pleasure, has made it possible for every child in the city to visit the gallery for a short period.

The Tribune to-day publishes a coupon. By presenting this coupon and 10 cents any child sixteen years old or under is entitled to visit the observation tower. There is only one condition attached—children must be properly looked after. A single adult is permitted to look after as many as ten children.

The Tribune, in the interest of the children, has arranged for the nominal charge through the courtesy of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company.

The regular charge for admission to the gallery is 50 cents.

The New York Tribune Metropolitan Tower EDUCATIONAL COUPON

Good for Week Ending July 18, 1914, Only. Between the hours of 10 A. M. and 12 M.

This coupon and 10 cents will entitle any boy or girl 16 years of age or under to a visit to the Observation Gallery of the Metropolitan Tower, Madison Ave. and 23rd Street, when properly accompanied. No adult person will be allowed to care for more than 10 children at any one trip.

NOTICE: The management of the Metropolitan Tower reserves the right to limit the number of children who will be allowed to visit the Tower on any given day.

CLIP THIS COUPON TO-DAY

Every child should take advantage of this offer and witness a sight never to be forgotten.

GO NOW—BEFORE IT'S TOO LATE.
